Homeowner & Renter Assistance Claim Booklet

California 9000H/9000R Forms and Instructions

You may qualify for Homeowner or Renter Assistance even though you are not required to file a state income tax return.

Be sure to peel off the label below and attach the label on the name and address area in Step 1. If you do not attach your label, there will be a delay in processing your claim.

> ftb.ca.gov

Use this booklet to file your 2008 Homeowner or Renter Assistance claim.

Please see the chart on page 3 to determine your eligibility.

Due to the State of California's budget deficit many state programs and services may experience budget cuts. If the HRA Program is affected by these cuts, the amount of your assistance payment may decrease.

You may complete your HRA claim form as instructed in this booklet. However, submission of your claim is not a guarantee of payment.

Free Help

Free assistance is available between July 1, 2008 and October 15, 2008.

Volunteers are available to provide help. Call (800) 868-4171 or go to our website at ftb.ca.gov and search for HRA to get the address of a Homeowner or Renter Assistance volunteer site near you.

If you need help completing the claim form in this booklet, see page 2 and page 19.

Free Assistance

A statewide volunteer assistance program provides free assistance between July 1, 2008 and October 15, 2008, for completing your claim form. For the Homeowner and Renter Assistance (HRA) volunteer site nearest you, call the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) (800) 868-4171 or call your local Senior Citizens Information and Referral Service. You may also go to our website at ftb.ca.gov and search for HRA.

If you need information to complete your claim form or to find out about your assistance check, call (800) 868-4171.

The State Controller's Property Tax Postponement Program For Senior Citizens, Blind, or Disabled Citizens

The Property Tax Postponement program is offered by the State Controller's Office. This program allows homeowners to postpone property tax payments on their primary residence, helping people stay in their homes. It is estimated that 900,000 Californians are eligible for the program, including many seniors, people with disabilities, people with limited incomes, and others.

Claim forms are available from the State Controller's Office website at sco.ca.gov.

For more information, email the Controller's Office at Postponement@sco.ca.gov, or write:

Letters

If you need to write to us, send your letter to:

FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 942886
SACRAMENTO CA 94286-0940

Include your social security number (SSN) and your daytime and evening telephone numbers. We will respond within 15 weeks. In some cases, we may need to call you for additional information.

Forms

You can download, view, use fillable forms with math features, and print forms and publications. Go to our website at ftb.ca.gov.

You may also order forms and publications by phone. See "Where To Get Claim Forms" on page 19 for instructions.

What's New

Total Household Income Limits Increase

The maximum total household income you could have had in 2007 and still be eligible to file for claim year 2008 is $44,096. For details, see "Who is Eligible for Homeowner or Renter Assistance" on page 3.

Round Cents to Dollars

Round cents to the nearest whole dollar when reporting income amounts (lines 8 through 16). For example, round $8,750.50 up to $8,751 or round $9,893.49 down to $9,893. If you do not round, FTB will disregard the cents. This change helps process your claim form quickly and accurately.

General Information

Recently enacted law requires Registered Domestic Partners (RDP) to be treated as married couples when applying California benefits including HRA. Consequently, RDPs follow the same requirements as married couples when qualifying for HRA benefits. References in these instructions to a spouse, a husband, or a wife also refers to an RDP under California law.

Homeowner and Renter Assistance Filing Period

The filing period for Homeowner and Renter Assistance claims is July 1, 2008 – October 15, 2008. Filing after October 15th may cause a delay in the payment of your claim.

Helpful Hints

To avoid mistakes that can delay your check or result in notices being sent to you, use the helpful hints below when preparing your claim form.

All claimants:

- If a peel-off label is available, attach the peel-off label from your booklet cover to Step 1 of your claim.
- Always enter your complete SSN.
- If you are married/RDP, file one claim and include both incomes.
- Enter your total household income on line 16.
- Check your form to make sure it is completely filled out.
- Sign the form.

Eligibility for Homeowner or Renter Assistance

(1) You must be

62 years or older;
(See Page 5, Step 3, line 3A)

or, under 62 years and blind;
(See Page 5, Step 3, line 3B)

or, under 62 years and disabled;
(See Page 5, Step 3, line 3C)

(2) And

You must have lived in a qualified rented residence in California, subject to property tax and paid $50 or more per month for rent during 2007. (See Page 6, Step 4, Rental Information)

Or

Owned and lived in your home in California on December 31, 2007. A home may include a condominium, "own your own" apartment, a mobile home, or floating homes taxed as property. (See Page 6, Step 4, Property Information)

(3) And you must meet all of the following:

INCOME

(See Page 7 and Page 8, Step 5.)

Had total household income of $44,096 or less in 2007.

Gross household income of $80,172 or less in 2007. Gross household income is total household income plus all non-cash business expenses such as depreciation, amortization, and depletion.

CITIZENSHIP

You must be a U.S. citizen or a designated alien, including a qualified alien, when you file the claim. For more information about alien status, see page 10.

812

- Make sure to attach all required documents.
- If you move, call (800) 868-4171 and let FTB know your new address.

Renters:

- File on form FTB 9000R. A fillable FTB 9000R with math features is available. Go to ftb.ca.gov and search for HRA.
- If your mailing address is a post office box in Step 1, you MUST enter your residence address on Step 4, line 6.
- Enter the total number of months that you paid rent of $50 or more on qualified residences in California.
- You have the option of not completing line 17, Renter Assistance claimed. Any difference (even minor math errors) between your computation and ours will cause a delay in processing your check.
- If you are married/RDP and living together and you both qualify for assistance, the two of you are only allowed to file one claim.

Homeowners:

- File on form FTB 9000H. A fillable FTB 9000H with math features is available. Go to ftb.ca.gov and search for HRA.
- You have the option of not completing line 18, Homeowner Assistance claimed. Any difference (even minor math errors) between your computation and ours will cause a delay in processing your check.
- Remember – Only one claim can be filed per household per year. Married/RDP couples living in the same residence can only file one claim.

Commonly Asked Questions

Where Do I Call For Help? (800) 868-4171

Information about the Homeowner and Renter Assistance Program is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by calling our Toll-Free Phone Service at (800) 868-4171. See page 19 of this booklet for the list of codes for commonly asked questions. Enter the three-digit code when instructed. Have a pencil and paper ready to take notes.

In addition, you will see a phone symbol  in the margin next to some paragraphs in this instruction booklet. The number below the phone symbol is the code for recorded information on that topic.

What is the Renter Assistance and What is the Maximum Amount of Assistance Allowed?

Renter assistance is a once-a-year payment to qualified individuals from the State of California based on part of the property taxes that you pay indirectly when you pay rent. The maximum renter assistance payment allowed is $347.50.

Is Renter Assistance Different from the Nonrefundable Renter's Credit?

Yes, renter assistance is different from the nonrefundable renter's credit claimed on your state income tax return.

What is the Homeowner Assistance and What is the Maximum Amount of Assistance Allowed?

Homeowner assistance is a once-a-year payment from the State of California based on part of the property taxes assessed and paid on your home. Eligible homeowners may receive up to 139% of the property taxes paid on the first $34,000 of the value of the home in 2007. The maximum assistance payment allowed is $472.60. For more information, see page 17.

803, 804

Who is Eligible for Homeowner or Renter Assistance?

You may be eligible to file a 2008 Homeowner or Renter Assistance Claim form if you meet the requirements on the chart above on December 31, 2007.

If you paid a vehicle-type tax on your mobile home to the Department of Housing and Community Development, you may file either as a renter or as a homeowner, but not both.

Married/RDP renters are considered one renter if they reside in the same rented residence and must file only one claim. If you live in a rented residence with other qualified renters, each renter may file a separate claim.

Homeowners are allowed to file only one claim per household each year. If two or more individuals of a household meet the qualifications, only one owner-claimant is entitled to payment per year.

If You are Not a U.S. Citizen

The federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (the Act) requires that payments for homeowner and renter assistance claims be distributed only to United States citizens and certain designated aliens, including qualified aliens. To apply for these benefits, complete form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H, and remember to provide the required declaration of your citizenship or alien status.

The FTB may request additional documentation or evidence to substantiate your declared status. The Act authorizes the FTB to compare information with the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (BCIS) to verify the immigration status you declare. Also, applicable regulations provide that information concerning aliens who cannot prove their declared alien status, after being provided an opportunity to do so, shall be reported to the BCIS.

What is a Qualified Rented Residence?

You or your landlord must pay general property tax or amounts in lieu of property tax for a property to be considered a qualified rented residence. Property tax for this program means 1% tax on the full value of the property or amounts in-lieu of property tax which are substantially equivalent. Bonds and special assessments paid to the county do not count toward qualification or amounts in-lieu of property tax which are substantially equivalent.

The term "substantially equivalent," as it applies to this assistance program, means that the amount paid in lieu of the actual 1% tax, must be 80% or more of the amount of taxes assessed on comparable properties.

If property taxes or amounts in lieu of property taxes are not paid for your rented residence, you may not file for renter assistance. If there are any questions regarding the tax-exempt status of your property, ask your landlord.

A qualified rented residence must be both of the following:

- Your principal place of residence
- Located in California

Various types of rented residences may qualify for renter assistance. Some of the most common types of residences are:

- Single family dwellings
- Apartments
- Hotel rooms
- Mobile homes
- Boarding houses
- Duplexes
- Flats
- Floating homes

Occupying a medical facility as a patient does not make it your rented residence. Such facilities are licensed medical institutions that provide medical care through the specialized staff required at those facilities. The patient occupies the space that is appropriate for the patient's care and the fees paid are for that care, not for the right to a particular residential space. These facilities include, but are not limited to, skilled nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities, and hospitals. These are not rented residences and do not qualify for renter assistance.

When Should You File Your 2008 Claim?

You should file your claim between July 1, 2008, and October 15, 2008.

Can I File an Assistance Claim for Prior Years?

You have until June 30, 2008 to file a claim for 2007. All other prior claim years that are filed will be denied unless you were medically incapacitated. Medical incapacity for this purpose means you were incapable of attending to your personal needs and activities. If a medical incapacity prevented you from filing your timely claim, you must file the claim by the earliest of the following dates, and attach proof of medically certified incapacity:

- Within six months after your medical incapacity ends
- Within three years of the end of the fiscal year for which you want to claim the assistance. For example, for claim year 2008, you will need to file by June 30, 2011, or within six months after your incapacity ends, whichever date is earlier. However, do not use the 2008 claim form to file claims for prior years. If you need to file a prior year claim, use the claim form for that specific year.

There are no other exceptions that would allow you to file a claim for prior years.

When Will Homeowner or Renter Assistance Checks be Mailed?

Most homeowner or renter assistance checks will be mailed within 15 weeks from the date you file your claim, if you file by October 15, 2008, the required documents are attached to your claim, and your claim form is complete. See page 9 for a list of the required documents.

Wait 15 weeks from the date you filed your claim before you call us about your assistance check. If you call before we have processed your claim, we will not have information about your check.

If your claim form is not complete, we may call or write for additional information.

Will passage of the 2008 state budget affect my payment?

Due to the State of California's budget deficit, many state programs and services may experience budget cuts. If the HRA Program is affected by these cuts, the amount of your assistance payment may decrease.

You may complete your HRA claim form as instructed in this booklet. However, submission of your claim is not a guarantee of payment.

Death of Claimant

If the date of death is on or before January 1, 2008: No person may file a claim on behalf of a person who died on or before January 1, 2008.

If the date of death is on or after January 2, 2008:

You may file a claim on behalf of your deceased spouse/RDP, only if you are the surviving spouse/RDP of an eligible claimant who died on or after January 2, 2008, and did not file a claim. Provide a copy of the death certificate with your claim form and write DECEASED on the top of the first page of the claim.

However, if you are eligible to file your own claim, you should file your claim instead of filing on behalf of your deceased spouse/RDP.

If the eligible claimant died after the claim was timely filed, any assistance attributable to such a deceased claimant may be paid to the surviving spouse/RDP, and if no surviving spouse/RDP, to any other household member who is a qualified claimant.

Before You Begin

Gather all of your 2007 income records. Homeowners will need a copy of their 2007/2008 property tax bill.

Step-by-Step Instructions

We provide step-by-step instructions to help you complete form FTB 9000R (renters) or form FTB 9000H (homeowners). Fillable forms with math features are available on our website. Go to ftb.ca.gov and search for HRA. Fill in only those lines that apply to your situation. If you need additional information or forms that are not included in this booklet, see page 19.

Step-by-Step Instructions for Completing the Claim Forms

The 2008 form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H, Renter or Homeowner Assistance Claims are on pages 11 and 15 of this booklet. Fillable forms with math features are available on our website. Go to ftb.ca.gov and search for HRA.

STEP 1 Name and Address

If your booklet has a label on the cover:

If the information is correct, attach the peel-off label to your completed claim. If the information is incorrect, cross out any errors and print in ink the correct information. Place the label on the name and address area in Step 1 of form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H.

If you do not attach your label, there will be a delay in processing your claim.

If your booklet does not have a label on the cover:

Print in ink or type your full name and mailing address in the spaces provided in Step 1 at the top of form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H.

Renter

If you enter a PO Box as your mailing address in Step 1, you must enter your residence address on Step 4, line 6.

Private Mail Box

Include the Private Mail Box (PMB) in the address field. Write "PMB" first, then the box number. Example: 111 Main Street PMB 123.

STEP 2 Social Security Number (SSN)

Even if you have a label, you must enter your SSN in the space provided. If you are married/RDP, you must enter your spouse's/RDP's SSN in the other space provided. Only one claim may be filed per married/RDP couple living in the same household.

If you do not provide a complete SSN, there will be a delay in processing of your claim.

STEP 3 Filing Status

Line 1 – Are you a United States citizen?

Yes. Check "Yes" on line 1, skip line 2, and go to line 3.

No. Check "No" on line 1 then go to line 2.

Line 2 – Benefit Eligibility for Noncitizens

Use the chart on page 10 to find the benefit eligibility code that matches your alien status. Then enter your alien status code on line 2a, alien registration number on line 2b, and date of entry to the United States on line 2c.

If you do not complete the information requested on lines 2a, 2b, and 2c, or if your alien status is not included in the Eligibility Code Chart for Noncitizens on page 10, you cannot receive homeowner or renter assistance benefits.

Line 3 – Check the appropriate box on the form.

Line 3A – 62 years or older

If you were 62 years or older on December 31, 2007, regardless of blindness or disability, check box A.

If you turned 62 on January 1, 2008, you are considered to be 62 on December 31, 2007. If you filed a claim form last year as blind or disabled and turned 62 during 2007, you must file as 62 years or older by checking box A, then go to line 4.

810 Proof of Age

If you receive social security or other income, you must send a proof of age document for the first year you file as 62 years or older. The proof of age document will become a permanent part of your record.

Attach a copy (do not send original documents) of one of the following:

- Birth certificate
- Medi-Cal Benefits Identification Card (BIC)
- Hospital birth record
- Church baptismal record
- Social security award letter that states your date of birth
- A copy of your California driver's license or identification card

If you do not have any of the above documents, you should send a copy of any document that proves that you are 62 years old. Explain how the document proves your age.

If you are at least 62 years old and received Supplemental Security Income (SSI), you do not need to send a proof of age document with your claim form. Your signature in Step 7 allows the FTB to verify your age with the Department of Health Services.

We cannot accept a Medicare card issued after June 30, 1973 as proof of age.

Line 3B – Under 62 years and Blind

If you are blind and under 62 years old, check box B then go to line 4.

You are considered blind if you have a statement from a doctor that says you have either:

- Central vision acuity (sharpness of vision) of no more than 20/200 with correction.
- Tunnel vision, which is a limited visual field of no more than 20 degrees.

Line 3C – Under 62 years and Disabled

If you are disabled and under 62 years old, check box C, then go to line 4.

You are considered disabled if you are unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental impairment that is expected to last for a continuous period of 12 months or longer. Further, you are considered disabled only if the physical or mental impairment is so severe that you are not only unable to do your previous type of work, but also cannot do any kind of substantial gainful work considering age, education, and work experience.

No minor child living in his or her parent's or guardian's home is eligible for renter assistance, because such a minor child cannot be found to have paid rent to the parent or guardian under a legally binding rental contract, express or implied. If a minor child is not living in the home with a parent or guardian, the minor child may qualify for assistance, if he or she can establish that: (1) they are living outside the family home and (2) they are a renter under the provisions of the HRA program.

811 Proof of Disability

Proof that you meet the legal definition for disability used for the HRA program is required each year that you file a homeowner or renter assistance claim.

Send a copy of one of the following documents to certify you were disabled for a 12 month period including December 31, 2007:

Your claim can only be allowed if you provide one of the documents listed below verifying that your disability meets the condition of impairment defined in Section 12050 of the Welfare and Institutions Code during 2007.

- Medicare Card, if receiving Social Security or Supplemental Security Income benefits as a disabled person.
- Social Security Award Letter (the letter notifying you that you qualified for Social Security or Supplemental Security Income benefits as a disabled person).
- Supplemental Security Income payment decision that shows your 2007 payment amounts.

Types of acceptable documentation in lieu of the above:

- A determination letter from the Veteran's Administration indicating that you were determined to be 100% permanently disabled or a total disability rating based on unemployability.
- The application, evidence, and determination letter or notice from the local, state, or federal agency to support its determination of your permanent disability under the definition in Section 12050 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- A Notice of Approval Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants (CAPI)

If you cannot provide any of the above documentation it may be possible to establish disability by providing a statement from your physician, including his medical license number, and signed by the physician under penalty of perjury, which includes ALL of the following items:

- 1) Information as to your specific physical and mental impairments
- 2) How these impairments prevent you from engaging in any kind of substantial gainful work considering your age, education and work experience
- 3) The date that your disability began
- 4) The date that your disability ended or whether your disability is ongoing

Proof of blindness is required only the first year you file a homeowner or renter assistance claim. You will not need to send proof again as long as your condition remains the same.

We cannot accept your Medi-Cal Benefits Identification Card as proof of blindness or disability.

Line 4 – Date of Birth

You must enter the month, day, and year of your birth on line 4. Otherwise, your claim will be delayed.

Example: If you were born on May 21, 1945, you would enter 05/21/1945 on line 4.

STEP 4 Rental Information, Form FTB 9000R

If you are a homeowner, skip this section and go to the Property Information below.

Line 5 – Enter the total number of months during 2007 that you lived in a qualified rented residence in California that was subject to property tax, and paid $50 or more per month for rent. For more information about which residences qualify, see “What is a Qualified Rented Residence?” on page 4.

Line 6 – If the address where you lived during 2007 is different than the address you entered in Step 1, or if the address in Step 1 is a post office box, enter your 2007 residence address. Enter your “Rented From” and “Rented To” dates.

Line 7 – Landlord Information

Enter the name, address, and telephone number of your landlord or the person to whom you paid the rent during 2007. If you had more than one landlord, attach a list of your other landlords with their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and dates rented.

Property Information, Form FTB 9000H

Line 5 – Did You Own and Live in Your Home?

You must have owned and lived in your home in California on December 31, 2007. A home may include a floating home or houseboat, your own condominium, “own-your-own” apartment, or a mobile or manufactured home taxed as property. If you pay a vehicle-type tax on your mobile or manufactured home to the Department of Housing and Community Development, you may file a claim for either homeowner assistance or for renter assistance. You may not file claims for both.

Line 5a – Net Value

Enter the net value of your property on line 5a. The net value of your property is the value of your property as shown on your 2007/2008 property tax bill. This may also be identified as full cash value, full market value, or full value.

Homeowner assistance is granted only on the first $34,000 of the net value as shown on your property tax bill. Assistance will not be allowed on that part of the net value (after homeowner's or veteran's exemption) of a residential dwelling that is more than $34,000.

Line 6 – Personal Use

If your property was used entirely for your personal use in 2007, check “No” and go to line 7. If you use part of your property for rental and/or business purposes, check “Yes”^{*} and enter your best estimate of the percentage of your property devoted to your personal use on line 6a. The percentage of your property you use as your home may be figured by the number of rooms, square footage, or any similar measure. For example, if you have five rooms in your home, use three rooms for your personal use and rent the other two rooms, your percentage of personal use would be figured this way:

$$\frac{3 \text{ rooms personal use}}{5 \text{ rooms total}} = 60\% \text{ personal use}$$

^{*}If you check “Yes,” you must complete line 12.

Line 7 – Names on Your Property Tax Bill

List the name(s) and relationship(s) of anyone, other than yourself, who is included on your property tax bill. Indicate whether they lived in your home in 2007 by checking "Yes" or "No."

Enter 100% as your percentage of ownership if the name(s) listed on your 2007/2008 property tax bill include only your spouse/RDP or any of the following persons related to you or to your spouse/RDP:

- Parents
- Children or their spouses/RDPs
- Grandchildren or their spouses/RDPs

Death, divorce, or a termination of a registered domestic partnership ends the relationship of any individual above who is related to the claimant only by marriage or thought an RDP.

You may file only one claim per household each year. Only one owner-claimant is entitled to payment per year. When two or more individuals of a household meet the qualifications, they should decide who will file the claim.

If your interest in your property is a recorded life estate, you are entitled to assistance on the tax assessed on your property.

Complete the following worksheet only if there are owners on your 2007/2008 property tax bill other than the relatives listed above and each owner has an equal percentage of ownership. If each owner does not have an equal percentage of ownership, do not complete the worksheet. Instead, go to line 7 of form FTB 9000H and enter your percentage of ownership.

1. Total number of owners listed on your 2007/2008 property tax bill. 1. _____
2. Number of owners, other than those listed above who did not live with you during the period January 1, 2007, through December 31, 2007 2. _____
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1 3. _____
4. Divide the amount on line 3 by the amount on line 1. This is your percentage of ownership of the home. Enter this percentage on form FTB 9000H, line 7 . . 4. _____

STEP 5 Yearly (Monthly) Income of Household Members –

Renters and Homeowners

You must enter the total household income received by all household members for the entire 2007 calendar year. Total household income from all members includes your income, your spouse's/RDP's income if you are married/RDP, and the income received by any other person who lived in your home (only enter the income that the other persons received while living in your home during the 2007 calendar year). However, do not include the income of minors, full-time students (under the age of 24 years), or renters.

The definition of income for Homeowner and Renter Assistance Program is different than for your personal income tax.

Enter yearly amounts on line 8 through line 16 on form FTB 9000R and form FTB 9000H. If yearly amounts are not available provide monthly amounts on line 8 through line 14. FTB will calculate your yearly household income.

Line 8 – Social Security/Railroad Retirement

Enter the total amount of social security (including the amount deducted for Medicare premiums) and railroad retirement received by you, your spouse/RDP, or any household member, regardless of its source or taxability.

Line 9 – Interest, Dividends, and/or Gain or (Loss)

Enter the combined total amount of interest, dividends, and capital gain or (loss) received by you, your spouse/RDP, or any members of the household, regardless of source or taxability.

Combine the amount of income or (loss) from the sale of assets with total yearly interest and dividends. You may use California Schedule D, Capital Gain or Loss Adjustment, to figure California gain or loss (not the adjustment). The maximum deductible net loss from the sale of capital assets is $3,000. Examples of capital assets are stocks and bonds.

You may use California Schedule D-1, Sales of Business Property, to figure net ordinary income or loss on the sale of business property.

Line 10 – Pensions, Annuities, and IRAs

Enter the total amount of pensions, annuities, and IRAs received by you, your spouse/RDP, or any member of the household. Include disability retirement payments and IRA distributions, regardless of source or taxability.

Line 11 – SSI/SSP

Enter the total amount of SSI/SSP (Supplemental Security Income/State Supplemental Plan) assistance received by you, your spouse/RDP, or any household member.

These payments are often called "Gold Checks."

Line 12 – Rental and Business Income or (Loss)

Enter the total amount of net rental income or (loss). Provide the income or loss from your federal Schedule E (Form 1040), Supplemental Income and Loss, or California Schedule CA (Form 540), California Adjustments. If you did not complete the federal Schedule E or California Schedule CA, provide the income or loss amount from any supporting document.

Enter the amount of net income or (loss) from your business. You may use the amounts from your federal Schedule C (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Business, Schedule C-EZ (Form 1040), Net Profit From Business, or federal Schedule F (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Farming, for farm income or (loss).

If you checked "Yes" on line 6 on FTB 9000H, you must complete line 12.

Line 13 – Other Income (Including Wages)

Enter the total amount of other income received by you, your spouse/RDP, and the other members of your household during 2007. Some of the types of income that you must include on line 13 are:

- Wages
- Alimony received
- Life insurance proceeds to the extent they exceed the expenses incurred for the last illness and funeral of a deceased spouse/RDP or the claimant
- Veteran's benefits
- Unemployment insurance benefits
- Worker's compensation for temporary disability (amounts for permanent disability must be entered on line 11)
- Amounts received from an employer or any government body for loss of wages due to sickness or accident (sick-leave payments)

- Military compensation (including nontaxable military compensation)
- Scholarships and fellowship grants
- Nontaxable gain from the sale of a residence
- California lottery winnings in excess of $600 in 2007; 100% of other lottery winnings
- Gifts and inheritances (including noncash items) in excess of $300, except transfers between members of the same household
- Amounts received from an estate or trust that were not included on any other line
- Amounts contributed by or on behalf of the claimant to a tax-sheltered retirement plan or deferred compensation plan
- The amount of alternative minimum taxable income in excess of your regular taxable income, if you were required to pay alternative minimum tax on your 2007 California income tax return
- Public assistance and relief, other than as excluded below

Types of income that you must not include on line 13 are:

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, formerly Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC)
- Foster care payments
- Federal heating rebates
- Utility company refunds or assistance
- Medicare or Medi-Cal reimbursements for medical expenses
- Renter or homeowner assistance payments

Renter or homeowner assistance will not be included as income or resources in determining the amount of public assistance payments to which you are entitled. Therefore, payments or assistance you or your spouse/RDP receive, such as food stamps, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, SSI/SSP, or payment for homemaker/chore services will not be reduced as a result of filing this claim.

Line 14 – Add line 8 through line 13.

Line 15 – Adjustments to Yearly Income

You may deduct the following from your income:

- Individual Retirement Arrangement Deduction – Deduct your deductible contribution to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA), Keogh (HR 10), Simplified Employee Plan (SEP), or Savings Incentive Match Plans for Employees (SIMPLE).
- Moving Expenses – Deduct allowable moving expenses that were not reimbursed by your employer.
- Self-employment tax deduction – Deduct one-half of your self-employment tax imposed for the taxable year.
- Self-employed health insurance deduction – Deduct the amount allowed for California personal income tax.
- Forfeited interest penalty on early withdrawal of savings – Deduct the penalty charged for premature withdrawal from a savings account.
- Alimony paid – Deduct court-ordered alimony payments.
- Student loan interest

Attach the appropriate form or a schedule explaining each adjustment to income.

You may not deduct the following items from your household income:

- Mortgage payments
- Utilities
- Repairs
- Taxes (other than self-employment tax)
- Fees

- Medical bills
- Interest paid on loans (other than interest on qualified education loans)
- Net operating loss carryover or carryback

If you have no adjustments to income enter zero.

Line 16 – Total Yearly Household Income

Subtract line 15 from line 14. Enter the result on line 16. If the amount on line 16 is more than $44,096, STOP. You do not qualify for renter or homeowner assistance.

STEP 6 Assistance Claimed – Renters and Homeowners

Line 17 – Form FTB 9000R – Renters

or

Line 18 – Form FTB 9000H – Homeowners

The amount of renter or homeowner assistance you will receive will be figured for you. You do not have to complete these lines. If you wish to figure the amount of assistance, see:

- FTB 9000R, page 13, Worksheet to Figure the Amount of Renter Assistance
- FTB 9000H, page 17, Worksheet to Figure the Amount of Homeowner Assistance

The law provides that no payment is permitted if the amount of allowable assistance is $5 or less.

STEP 7 Signature, Date, and Telephone Number

Authorization

If you receive SSI (See page 5 and page 6), your signature authorizes the FTB to verify with the Department of Health Services that you meet the age, disability, or blindness requirement. This helps us process your claim faster. In addition, other eligibility criteria may be verified with the Department of Health Services and other state or federal agencies.

Declaration

Your signature at the bottom of Side 2 of form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H, Step 7, is also your declaration of your qualified alien or citizenship status.

Sign and Date Your Claim Form

You must sign and date your claim form in the space provided. You may sign by making a mark in front of a witness. The word “witness” and the witness’s signature must be entered after your mark. If you are filing on behalf of a deceased spouse/RDP, print “Surviving Spouse/RDP” after your signature. See instructions for Death of Claimant on page 4. We must have written authorization for someone other than a surviving spouse/RDP to sign for the claimant. If someone acting as an Attorney in Fact or conservator signs the claim, the claimant must submit a copy of the Power of Attorney, letter of conservatorship, or other documentation that gives authorization, with the claim.

Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN)

Tax professionals have the option of providing their individual Social Security Number (SSN) or Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN) on claims they prepare.

Enter Your Telephone Number

Your telephone number is important. If the need arises, we can provide you with faster and more complete service if we can contact you by telephone. Be sure to enter your area code.

Review and Mail Your Claim Form

Review Your Claim Form

Review your claim form to make sure it is complete and correct. Be sure to include any copies of documents that are requested in the instructions (see list below). Provide a copy of the death certification, if applicable.

If a label is provided, peel off the label with your name and address and attach the label to Step 1 of your claim form.

Required Documents

If the required documents are not attached to your claim form, your check will be delayed until the FTB receives and processes the missing documents. Attach copies of the following required documents that apply to your claim:

- Proof of age is required for the first year you file as 62 years or older. For more information, see page 5 inside the booklet.
- Proof of blindness is required for the first year you file as blind. For more information, see page 6 inside the booklet.
- Proof of disability is required each year you file as disabled. For more information, see page 6 inside the booklet.
- If the claim is signed by someone acting as an Attorney in Fact or conservator, a copy of the Power of Attorney or letters of conservatorship must be submitted with the claim.

Homeowners

You must attach a copy of your 2007/2008 property tax bill if:

- This is your first time filing as a homeowner.
- You previously filed, but now own a different home.

You do not need to provide a copy of your property tax bill if you previously filed as a homeowner at your current address.

- If you lived in a mobile or manufactured home, a copy of the Registration Renewal Notice and Registration card and/or property tax bill you received for your mobile or manufactured home.
- Your property tax bill, if you are a first-time filer (except for Tenant-Stockholders).

Keep the following documents that apply to your claim for your records. Do not send in copies unless you are specifically requested to do so.

- If you have rental income or (loss), business income or (loss), capital gains or (loss), or adjustments to income, a complete copy of your 2007 federal Form 1040 along with the supporting schedules.
- If you do not own your home but have a possessory interest, a copy of the document granting you a possessory interest.
- If your property is held in a trust, a copy of the Certification of Trust, or the date of execution of the trust instrument, the identity of the settlor(s), current acting trustee(s), whether it is a revocable trust, and the trust identification number.

Mail Your Claim Form

Mail your claim form and attached documents to:

FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 942886
SACRAMENTO CA 94286-0904

In most cases, renter and homeowner assistance checks will be mailed within 15 weeks from the date you filed your claim. For more information, see page 4 inside the booklet.

Privacy Notice

The Information Practices Act of 1977 and the Federal Privacy Act require that the following information be provided to individuals who are asked to supply information:

The official who is responsible for maintaining the information is the Director, Processing Services Bureau. Address your correspondence to:

DIRECTOR, PROCESSING SERVICES BUREAU
FRANCHISE TAX BOARD MS L170
PO BOX 942840
SACRAMENTO CALIFORNIA 94240-0040

Telephone number:

Within the United States. (800) 868-4171

The Revenue and Taxation Code requires every person claiming benefits under the Homeowner and Renter Assistance Program to make a claim according to the forms and regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board (Sections 20501 through 20646 and the Regulations pertaining thereto). Individuals making claims, providing statements, or other documents are required to include their social security numbers to ensure proper identification and to permit processing of the claims. (See also Section 205(c)(2) of the Federal Social Security Act as amended by Section 1211 of the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1976.)

The principal purposes for requesting information are to permit the department to properly respond to homeowner and renter assistance claims and other communications and to determine the validity of claims. Filing a claim for assistance is voluntary. However, if a claim is filed, the applicant must complete the form and provide all requested information for the claim to be considered. Assistance shall not be allowed based on incomplete or inaccurate claims.

As authorized by law, information furnished on the claim form may be transferred to the Bureau of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service and to the following governmental agencies and officials of the State: Board of Control, Board of Equalization, Department of Finance, Office of the State Controller, Bureau of State Audits, and Legislative Analyst. An individual has a right of access to records containing his/her personal information that are maintained by the Franchise Tax Board.

Chart for Finding the Benefit Eligibility Code for Noncitizens

Are you a United States citizen?

Yes STOP. You must check the “Yes” box on line 1 of form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H. You do not need to read this page.

No You must enter an eligibility code from the chart below on line 2a of form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H. Follow the instructions below for determining your eligibility code.

General Information

If you are not a United States citizen, you may file a claim for renter or homeowner assistance only if you are one of the following when you file your claim:

- A qualified alien
- A nonimmigrant alien under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA)
- An alien paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA for less than one year

These categories of aliens are described further by the Eligibility Code Chart for Noncitizens below. Undocumented aliens and aliens not described below are not eligible to receive renter or homeowner assistance and should not complete a claim form.

Instructions

If you are not a United States citizen, find the category listed below that accurately describes your presence or admission to the United States. Transfer the alien status code letter for that category to form FTB 9000R or form FTB 9000H, line 2a.

If you have questions regarding your immigration status, contact your local Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (BCIS) office.

Worksheet to Figure the Amount of Renter Assistance, Form FTB 9000R

If you want, we will figure the amount of renter assistance for you. You may, however, figure this amount as follows:

If you were a qualified renter for all of 2007, your allowable assistance will be based on the total household income (form FTB 9000R, line 16) as shown in the Renter Assistance Schedule below.

If you were a qualified renter for less than one year during 2007 complete line 1 through line 4 to figure your assistance.

1. Enter the amount of assistance from the Renter Assistance Schedule below for your total household income shown on form FTB 9000R, line 16 1. $ _____
2. Enter the total number of months during 2007 that you lived in a qualified rented residence in California shown on form FTB 9000R, line 5 2. x _____
3. Multiply the amount on line 1 by the number on line 2. 3. $ _____
4. Divide the answer on line 3 by 12 (months). This is your allowable assistance. Enter this amount on form FTB 9000R, line 17. 4. $ _____

Example for qualified renter for less than one year: Total household income is $13,615 and the residence was rented for 9 months.

1. Amount of assistance from the Renter Assistance Schedule below 1. $ 320.00
2. Number of months shown on form FTB 9000R, line 5. 2. x 9
3. Multiply line 1 by line 2 3. $2,880.00
4. Divide line 3 by 12 (months). This is your allowable assistance. 4. $ 240.00

Example Worksheet to Figure the Amount of Homeowner Assistance

Example for net value over $34,000: Your home was not used as a rental and/or business, your percentage of ownership is 100%, and the net value of your property as shown on form FTB 9000H, line 5a is $70,000. Your property tax is $700. Your total household income is $13,615.

| | | |
|--|----|----------|
| 1. Value of home, from form FTB 9000H, line 5a | 1. | $70,000 |
| 2. Divide \$34,000 by \$70,000 ($34,000 \div 70,000 = 48.6\%$) | 2. | 48.6% |
| 3. Personal use of home, from form FTB 9000H, line 6a. | 3. | 100% |
| 4. You are the sole owner, see form FTB 9000H, line 7. | 4. | 100% |
| 5. Enter 1% of line 1 above | 5. | $700 |
| 6. Enter smallest percentage of line 2, 3, or 4 | 6. | 48.6% |
| 7. Multiply line 5 by line 6 ($700 \times 48.6\% = 340.20$) | 7. | \$340* |
| 8. The percentage on $13,615 of household income is 128%. | 8. | 128% |
| 9. Multiply line 7 by line 8 ($340 \times 128\% = 435.20$) | 9. | \$435.20 |

The amount from line 9 is your allowable homeowner assistance. Enter this amount on form FTB 9000H, line 18.

*Line 7 cannot be greater than $340.

Example for net value less than $34,000: Your home was not used as a rental and/or business, your percentage of ownership is 100%, and the net value of your property as shown on form FTB 9000H, line 5a is $24,000. Your property tax is $240. Your total household income is $13,615.

| | | |
|--|----|----------|
| 1. Value of home, from form FTB 9000H, line 5a | 1. | $24,000 |
| 2. If the value of your home is less than $34,000 enter 100%. | 2. | 100% |
| 3. Personal use of home, from form FTB 9000H, line 6a. | 3. | 100% |
| 4. You are the sole owner, see form FTB 9000H, line 7. | 4. | 100% |
| 5. Enter 1% of line 1 above | 5. | $240 |
| 6. Enter smallest percentage of line 2, 3, or 4 | 6. | 100% |
| 7. Multiply line 5 by line 6 ($240 \times 100\% = 240$) | 7. | \$240 |
| 8. The percentage on $13,615 of household income is 128%. | 8. | 128% |
| 9. Multiply line 7 by line 8 ($240 \times 128\% = 307.20$) | 9. | \$307.20 |

The amount from line 9 is your allowable homeowner assistance. Enter this amount on form FTB 9000H, line 18.
